

POSITION AVAILABLE: Tamarind Institute Professor of Practice/Education Director, 1.0 FTE

SALARY: $57,000

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

MFA in Studio Art with emphasis in Printmaking

One year university-level teaching experience as instructor of record beyond TA Level

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Tamarind Master Printer training

Minimum of two years of University-level teaching experience of undergraduate and graduate students as a full-time employee

Minimum of two years experience maintaining an active print workshop

Advanced knowledge of the technical aspects of lithography

Established network within the academic and professional print community Experience giving print demonstrations and ability to speak to a broad audience, from graduate students and faculty to the general public

Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and student success, as well as working with broadly diverse communities

Strong mentoring and communication skills

Collegiality and ability to participate in a collaborative working environment

APPLICATION: All applicants must apply online at the University of New Mexico website: hr.unm.edu. Requisition #XXXX. Please attach as part of the application in the UNMJobs system the following: letter of application; CV with names and complete contact information of three professional references; teaching philosophy; diversity statement addressing contributions to diversity through research, teaching, and/or service; and evidence of experience teaching lithography.

If selected for the position, you will need to provide official certification of successful completion of all degree requirements required as a minimum requirement for this position prior to your initial employment with UNM.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: For best consideration, all application materials must be received by February 11, 2019. APPOINTMENT DATE: June 1, 2019

Tamarind Institute is a division of the College of Fine Arts at The University of New Mexico. This is a dedicated full-time faculty position for Tamarind Institute. The Professor of Practice/Education Director is the key mentor and instructor for the Professional Printer Training Program and Summer Workshop. The training program is extremely specialized and the Professor Practice/Education Director is considered a leader in the field of collaborative printmaking and fine art lithography.

